

Call for Demos and Exhibits

The 2014 International Conference on 3D Vision (3DV 2014) is inviting researchers and exhibitors to reserve space at convention rooms in Institute of Industrial Science, The Univ. of Tokyo, Japan, Dec 8th - 11th, 2014. The conference will provide a good opportunity for the academic and industrial communities to demonstrate research, share solutions, and exhibit products. Technical topics of the conference include all areas of 3D computer vision.

Academic Demos

Demos are usually related to specific research papers (not necessarily presented at 3DV2014). To show a demo, at least one of the demonstrators must be registered as a 3DV attendee.

Industrial Exhibits

3DV2014 particularly encourages companies and other commercial entities or laboratories to participate in showcasing their products. To show an exhibit, we provide one free pass to each company including 2 free registrations, but no banquet tickets included.

Application Form

Prospective demo/exhibit participants should fill out and submit a demo/exhibit application form and e-mail it to the demo chairs:

Bo Zheng (zheng@cvl.iis.u-tokyo.ac.jp)

Norimichi Ukita (ukita@is.naist.jp)
